

Title VI Policy

Billings Logan International Airport

49 CFR Part 21: Unlawful Discrimination

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin in programs and activities receiving Federal financial assistance. It is the policy of the Billings Logan International Airport that "no person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." (42 U.S.C. § 2000d.)

Any person who believes he or she has been unlawfully discriminated against under Title VI, may file a complaint with the Billings Logan International Airport's Title VI Coordinator within 180 days of the date of the alleged discrimination, in accordance with the Billings Logan International Airport's Title VI Complaint Procedures. The Title VI Complaint Procedures are available from the Title VI Coordinator, or by visiting the Title VI section of the Airport website.
